

City of Baltimore Department of Public Works

600 ABEL WOLMAN MUNICIPAL BUILDING, BALTIMORE, MARYLAND 21202

SHEILA DIXON, MAYOR

GEORGE L. WINFIELD, DIRECTOR

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Tuesday, April 3, 2007

HOLIDAY NOTICE

Good Friday is April 6

Baltimore City Public Works' Offices will be Closed No Municipal Trash Pickup; Parking Meters will remain in Effect

Public Works Director George L. Winfield today issued a reminder to citizens that Department of Public Works' offices will be closed on Friday, April 6, 2007, in observance of Good Friday. There will be no collection of trash, bulk or recyclables in Baltimore City on this day. The Quarantine Road Landfill, the Northwest Transfer Station and the Eastern, Western and Northwestern Sanitation Yards will be CLOSED.

TRASH

Citizens, whose regular trash collection day is Friday, are asked to place their trash out on their next regularly scheduled collection day, Tuesday, April 10.

RECYCLING

Friday, April 6 is not a scheduled recycling collection day for city residents.

MONTHLY SCHEDULED BULK COLLECTIONS

There will be no monthly bulk trash collections on April 6, 2007.

REMINDER: PARKING

Parking meters will be in effect on Good Friday, April 6, 2007. All posted regulations must be observed.

Contact:

Kurt L. Kocher

Telephone: 410-545-6541

email: Kurt.Kocher@Baltimorecity.gov

or David Brown

Telephone: 410-361-9296

email: David.Brown2@Baltimorecity.gov

ALL DPW PRESS RELEASES CAN BE FOUND AT: www.BaltimoreCity.gov